@ Perinton Dance Company – Saturdays 11:15AM-12:00PM (45 mins, 1x/week) w/ Ms. Laura Isabella

Tuition: $55 per student/per session

Do you want your child to improve his/her music reading? Is your child fascinated by the structure of music? Children will learn about the building blocks of pitch, rhythm, dynamics and much more. Children will have fun singing, composing, and analyzing music in a non-competitive way. This class is perfect for students in third grade to sixth grade. In this class students will:

- Identify treble and bass clef notes in written form as well as aurally
- Match sung and played pitches accurately
- Recognize and break down rhythmic components
- Clap/tap/stomp/speak/sing rhythms accurately
- Sight-read short exercises in small groups and alone
- Sing and understand Solfege using Kodaly hand symbols
- Comprehend the difference between major and minor
- Understand the components of basic key signatures: C, D, E, A, G, etc.
- Compose basic, short melodies in small groups and alone

Students will explore the fundamentals of music through song, composition and analysis. This class is a wonderful way to reinforce school general music class as well as for increasing musical literacy in a fun, non-competitive way.

Intermediate Sight-singing and Music Theory Ages 12 and up (5 classes, 1/14/12 – 2/11/12)
